Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Bill and Jim Scherr are returning to their hometown of Mobridge, triumphant again, this time with twin Division I NCAA Wrestling Championships; and,

WHEREAS, Both Bill and Jim have a tradition of returning home victorious. Together they led Mobridge High School to its first State Championship, and last year they led the Nebraska Cornhuskers' Wrestling Team to its highest NCAA finish ever; and,

WHEREAS, Bill, the 190-pound Division I NCAA Champion, is a three-time All American, three-time Academic All American, two-time Big-8 Champion, 1982 United States Wrestling Federation Athlete of the Year, National Junior Free-style Champion, National Open Free-style Champion and two-time State High School Champion; and,

WHEREAS, Jim, the 177-pound Division I NCAA Champion, adds this latest honor to a long string of accomplishments: two-time All American, two-time Academic All American, Big-8 Champion, 1983 United States Wrestling Federation Athlete of the Year and a South Dakota State High School Championship; and,

WHEREAS, Both Bill and Jim have extensive experience in international wrestling, where they both excelled, and in so doing have been true ambassadors for the City of Mobridge, the State of South Dakota, and the United States of America; and,

WHEREAS, Both Bill and Jim have been selected to wrestle for the United States against the USSR team in Chicago in April; and,

WHEREAS, The people of Mobridge are honoring their Scherr Twins on March 30 at the Mobridge Country Club in appreciation of the Scherr twins' accomplishments, and in recognition of their dedication to excellence in all areas of their lives:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 30, 1984, as in South Dakota, and I join the citizens of South Dakota in honoring these exemplary young men for their many accomplishments and in wishing for them the greatest success as they hit the mats for future matches, honors and triumphs.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty--seventh Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty--Four
